++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with rain on Friday.

Today:
Mild, but cloudy and wet, with prolonged and occasionally heavy rain generally, and with low cloud on hills. Mainly light winds, although the far south may be breezier at times. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
A colder night than of late. Becoming drier from the south during the evening, ahead of a further swathe of rain pushing eastward to end the night on increasing winds. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloudy, breezy and wet during the morning, the rain perhaps turning heavy briefly before clearing eastwards into the afternoon. Drier and brighter later, with some sunny spells and isolated showers. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Successive bouts of wet and windy weather making progress eastwards leading to temperatures below average. Some sunny spells are also likely, these probably more commonplace into the new working week.
